

The Vermont State Ethics Commission at its September 4, 2019 meeting approved Executor Director Larry Novins' recommendation to withdraw Advisory Opinion 18-01 issued on October 1, 2018. The opinion discussed the governor's financial relationship with his former company which contracts with the State of Vermont. The Commission concluded that the process used at the time was incorrect.